Integrated

The fully automated end-to-end process can be fully integrated into the existing IT landscape

The challenge

In a digitized and globalized world, interactions with business partners are increasingly important.

This creates a number of challenges for organizations:

- Significant administrative costs, often amplified by a heterogeneous IT landscape
- Changing expectations of external stakeholders and the society regarding transparency and integrity of business partners
- Increasingly complex regulations at national and global level

Our solution

PwC's and Appian's innovative, fully automated and integrated Know Your Business Partner (KYBP) platform can support you meet these challenges - and ensure quality, compliance and integrity along the entire value chain.
